Dear Ms. Viskovich:

Enclosed is a copy of the Public Disclosure Commission's Order Imposing Fine that was entered in the above-referenced case. At the August 5, 2016, hearing the Presiding Officer found no violation against you and closed your case administratively, for the following reasons:

1. You stated that you attempted to file the F-1 electronically on-line on May 21, 2016, after you filed the C-1 report, and you thought you successfully filed the F-1 report, but found out when you received the hearing notice that you had only saved the F-1 report.
2. PDC staff researched the issue and reviewed the metadata which indicated that you filed an amended F-1 report on July 19, 2016, which was two days prior to the hearing notice being sent out.

Thank you for your participation at the Brief Enforcement hearing, If you have questions, please contact me at (360) 664-8854; or by email at kurt.young@pdc.wa.gov.

Sincerely,

Kurt Young

In Re Compliance with RCW 42.17A

Stephanie Viskovich

Respondent.

PDC Case 6805

Findings of Fact,
Conclusions of Law, and Order Imposing Fine

A brief enforcement hearing (brief adjudicative proceeding) was held August 5, 2016, in Room 206, Evergreen Plaza Building, 711 Capitol Way, Olympia, Washington to consider whether the Respondent violated RCW 42.17A.700 by failing to timely file a Personal Financial Affairs Statement (F-1 report), which was due to be filed within two weeks of becoming a candidate in the 2016 election, or not later than June 3, 2016.

The hearing was held in accordance with Chapters 34.05 and 42.17A RCW and Chapter 390-37 WAC. A brief enforcement hearing notice was sent to Stephanie Viskovich on July 21, 2016. Commission Chair Anne Levinson was the Presiding Officer. The Commission staff was represented by Kurt Young, Compliance Officer. The Respondent participated by telephone at the hearing, and presented testimony to the Presiding Officer.

Having considered the evidence, the Presiding Officer finds as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Respondent is a first-time candidate for State Representative in the 46th Legislative District in 2016.
2. As a candidate for office in 2016, the Respondent was required to file a C-1 report and an F-1 report no later than June 3, 2016.
3. The Respondent timely filed the C-1 report on May 19, 2016.
4. The Respondent filed the missing F-1 report on July 25, 2016, prior to the brief enforcement hearing being held.

5. The Respondent has no prior violations.
6. The Respondent stated that she attempted to file the F-1 electronically on-line on May 21, 2016, after she filed the C-1 report. She stated she thought she had filed the F-1 report, but found out when she received the hearing notice that she had only saved the F-1 report.
7. PDC staff researched the issue and reviewed the metadata for F-1 Report No. 100710307, which was e-filed on July 25, 2016. The metadata indicated that an amended F-1 report had been received from the Respondent on July 19, 2016, which was two days prior to the hearing notice being sent out.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Based on the above facts, as a matter of law, the Presiding Officer concludes as follows:

1. This matter was duly and properly convened and all jurisdictional, substantive and procedural requirements have been satisfied.
2. The Respondent did not violate RCW 42.17A.700.

Respondent's Appeal Rights

REVIEW OF INITIAL ORDER - BY THE COMMISSION

The presiding officer will issue an initial order following a brief enforcement hearing. Any party may request the Commission review an initial order. Parties seeking the review must:

- Make the request orally or in writing, stating the reason for review (WAC 390-37-144).
- Deliver the request so it is received at the Commission office within TWENTY-ONE (21) BUSINESS DAYS after the postmark date of the initial order.

A Respondent does not need to pay a penalty until after the Commission rules on the request. If the Commission is unable to schedule a meeting to consider the request within twenty (20) business days, the initial order becomes a final order and the request will automatically be treated as a request for reconsideration of a final order (unless the party advises the Commission otherwise, such as by withdrawing the request). See more information on reconsideration below.

If the request for review was an oral request, it must now be confirmed in writing. The matter will be scheduled before the full Commission as soon as practicable. If the Commission does not receive a request for review within twenty-one (21) business days, the initial order will automatically become a final order. At that point, the Respondent is legally obligated to pay the penalty unless reconsideration has been sought or the matter has been timely appealed to Superior Court. RCW 42.17A.755; RCW 34.05.470; RCW 34.05.570.

RECONSIDERATION OF FINAL ORDER – BY THE COMMISSION

Any party may ask the Commission to reconsider a final order. Parties seeking reconsideration must:

- Make the request in writing;
- Include the specific grounds or reasons for the request; and
- Deliver the request to the PDC office so it is received within TWENTY-ONE (21) BUSINESS DAYS of the date that the Commission serves this order upon the party. WAC 390-37-150.

- Note: the date of service by the Commission on a party is considered the date of mailing by U.S. mail if the order is mailed, or the date received if the order is personally served. RCW 34.05.010(19). (The Commission orders are generally mailed via U.S. mail.)

Within twenty (20) business days after the petition for reconsideration is filed, the Commission may either act on the petition or notify the parties in writing of the date by which it will act. If neither of these events happens within twenty business days, the Commission is deemed to have denied the petition for reconsideration. WAC 390-37-150.

A Respondent is not required to ask the Commission to reconsider a final order before seeking judicial review by a superior court. RCW 34.05.470(5).

FURTHER APPEAL RIGHTS – SUPERIOR COURT

A final order issued by the Public Disclosure Commission is subject to judicial review under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), chapter 34.05 RCW. RCW 42.17A.755. The procedures are provided in the APA at RCW 34.05.510 - .574.

ENFORCEMENT OF FINAL ORDERS

If enforcement of a final order is required, the Commission may seek to enforce a final order in superior court under RCW 42.17A.755 - .760, and recover legal costs and attorney's fees if a penalty remains unpaid and no petition for judicial review has been filed. This action will be taken without further order by the Commission.
